

ADOPTED 1997

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ETC. (SCOTLAND) ACT 1994

SCOTTISH BORDERS COUNCIL

SCHEME FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMUNITY COUNCILS

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 The Scottish Borders Council, in accordance with the terms of Section 22 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 has adopted the following Scheme for the establishment of Community Councils within the Scottish Borders Council area, and has revoked the Schemes made by the former Berwickshire, Ettrick and Lauderdale, Roxburgh and Tweeddale District Councils, with effect from midnight on 31 March 1997.

2.0 Purpose of Community Councils

- 2.1 In addition to any other purpose which a Community Council may pursue, the general purpose of a Community Council shall be to ascertain, co-ordinate and express to the Local Authority for its area, and to public authorities, the views of the community which it represents in relation to matters for which those authorities are responsible, and to take such action in the interests of that community as appears to it to be expedient and practicable.

3.0 Procedure for Establishment of Community Councils

- 3.1 In the event of not less than 20 electors in any one of the areas listed in Schedule 1 to this Scheme, and shown delineated on the maps (numbered 1 - 67) annexed to the principal copy of this Scheme, with the exception of Bowden, for the reasons stated in Clause 3.2 below, making written application for the establishment of a Community Council for that area in accordance with this Scheme, the Scottish Borders Council shall, within six weeks from the date of the petition, invite nominations and thereafter, if necessary, organise an election for the establishment of a Community Council for that area.
- 3.2 Bowden Village Committee having requested that it be accepted by the Scottish Borders Council in its present title and existing form of Constitution to act instead of a Community Council for an area enumerated No. 22 on the Map annexed hereto, comprising Bowden Village and its surrounding district, being part of Bowden Parish, the Scottish Borders Council has determined that no Community Council is necessary for that area for the following reasons, namely:-
- (First) that the Committee, being composed of members duly elected at a public meeting, is truly representative of the community which it serves;
- (Second) that the Committee has exhibited to the Scottish Borders Council sufficient proof of its involvement with and activities on behalf of the community to indicate that the establishment of a Community Council in addition to that Committee is unnecessary;
- (Third) that the Committee holds considerable funds and other property, including Bowden Common Land extending to 26 acres or thereby, in trust for the benefit of the community; and
- (Lastly) that the Committee gains certain advantages from its charitable status not presently enjoyed by Community Councils.

4.0 Composition of Community Councils

4.1 Community Councils shall be composed of :

- (a) the number of Members specified for that Community Council as detailed in Schedule 1 hereto who have been elected in the manner aftermentioned;
- (b) the Scottish Borders Councillor(s) for the area covered by the Community Council or part of it, who shall have ex officio membership of that Community Council during their period of office for the Authority but shall have no entitlement to vote or hold office in the Community Council. No Member of the Scottish Borders Council may simultaneously be a member of a Community Council other than in an ex officio capacity; and
- (c) may include co-opted members in the following circumstances:-
 - (i) Community Councils may co-opt further members with skills or knowledge which the Community Council consider would be of assistance to the Community Council in carrying out its functions. Such co-opted members shall not have voting rights and shall not hold office, and may be under eighteen years of age. Members co-opted for this purpose will serve for such time as may be determined by the Community Council at the time of their co-option or until the Community Council decide that their services are no longer required; and
 - (ii) Community Councils may, where their elected membership does not comprise the maximum number of elected members specified in Schedule 1 but is equal to or exceeds one-half of that number or where casual vacancies arise during a term of office, co-opt persons who would be eligible for election to the Community Council as members in order to make up these numbers, subject to the number of members so co-opted not at any time exceeding one quarter of the maximum number of elected members specified for that Community Council in Schedule 1. Members so co-opted may serve until the next ordinary election to that Community Council, with full voting rights.

5.0 Method of Co-option of Members

5.1 A proposal to co-opt a person or persons to a Community Council under paragraph 4.1 (c)(ii) hereof shall require a Notice of Motion to that effect to be included on the Agenda for the appropriate meeting of the Community Council, and such Notice of Motion shall include the name and address of the person proposed to be co-opted, together with (where appropriate) that person's number on the current Electoral Register, and the names of the proposer and seconder who shall be Members of the Community Council.

6.0 Casual Vacancies

6.1 A casual vacancy shall be deemed to arise in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) on the day when a member ceases to be entered in the Electoral Roll for the area covered by the Community Council;
- (b) on the expiry of a period of six calendar months during which a member of a Community Council has failed to attend a meeting of that Community Council, or of any Committee or other body constituted by such Community Council unless leave of absence has been granted or other reason accepted by that Community Council; or
- (c) upon the receipt by a Community Council of a written notice of resignation from a member.

7.0 Term of Office

7.1 Elected members of a Community Council shall serve for a term of office to be specified in the Constitution of that Community Council, subject to that term of office being for a minimum of one year and a maximum of five years and shall be eligible for re-election.

8.0 Nomination of Candidates

- 8.1 A person seeking election to a Community Council must be aged 18 years or over and appear on the Electoral Roll for that Community Council area at the date of being proposed for membership of the Community Council. Each candidate shall be nominated by a Proposer (who may be the candidate) and a Secunder, both being persons whose names appear at that time in the said Electoral Roll for the respective Community Council's area, or sub-division of that area, where applicable.
- 8.2 No person shall be entitled to nominate more than one candidate.
- 8.3 When instructed to do so by the Scottish Borders Council in the case of initial elections, and by the Community Councils themselves following their establishment, the Returning Officer shall give public notice of an invitation to submit nominations for membership of Community Councils, in such form as the Scottish Borders Council may prescribe, as illustrated in Schedule 2 hereto, within such period as is specified in the notice, being not less than 14 and not more than 28 days of the date of the public notice, allowing 7 days thereafter for withdrawals.
- 8.4 Where the number of valid nominations, after any withdrawals, exceeds the number of Community Council members specified in Schedule 1, a contested election shall be held in accordance with the procedure hereinafter prescribed.
- 8.5 Where the number of valid nominations, after any withdrawals, is equal to, or more than half, the number of Community Council members specified in Schedule 1, the Returning Officer shall give public notice that the candidates validly nominated have been elected to the Community Council.
- 8.6 Where the number of valid nominations, after any withdrawals, is less than half the number of Community Council members specified in Schedule 1, no Community Council will be established and the Returning Officer shall give public notice that no Community Council shall be formed at that time. In such event, no further application for the establishment of a Community Council for that area shall be considered until the expiry of a period of at least six months after the date of the public notice of the invitation to submit nominations. In the event of such an application being received after that period, the Returning Officer shall issue a further invitation to submit nominations and the electoral process shall be repeated. If, after this second invitation, the number of valid nominations is still less than half the number of Community Council members specified in Schedule 1, no further applications for the establishment of a Community Council for that area shall be considered until the expiry of a period of at least twelve months after the date of public notice of that second invitation.
- 8.7 The Returning Officer shall publish whether through a free sheet circulating throughout the Community Council area or in some other manner, not less than seven days prior to the election, details of the election procedure to be employed, including the names and addresses of candidates and the place, dates and times fixed for the conduct of the poll and the count.

9.0 Returning Officer

- 9.1 The Returning Officer for the first election to a Community Council shall be the Director of Central Services of the Scottish Borders Council, or his appointed nominee and, for all elections after the establishment of a Community Council, shall be the person appointed by the Community Council concerned, subject to approval by the Director of Central Services. The Returning Officer for a Community Council election shall not be an elected member of that Community Council or a candidate in that election to that Community Council.

10.0 Voting Arrangements

- 10.1 Persons included in the section(s) of the Electoral Roll for the area applicable to a Community Council and who would be entitled to vote in a Local Government election at the date of the Community Council election shall be entitled to vote in Community Council elections for that area.
- 10.2 Voting in a Community Council election shall take place by way of a secret procedure. The method of election shall be determined by the Returning Officer as:-
 - (a) by ballot box, at a designated polling place or places using a simplified version of the prescribed procedure for Local Authority elections; or

(b) by post.

There shall, however, be no alternative of postal voting in connection with method a) above, nor shall there be any provision for the issue of poll cards or voting by proxy for either method of election.

- 10.3 The ballot papers to be used in Community Council elections shall be laid out in a style approved by the Scottish Borders Council.
- 10.4 Each eligible elector shall have available to him a number of votes equal to the aggregate number of seats being contested at that election, subject to the proviso that where a Community Council area is divided into sub-divisions, each eligible elector shall, unless the Constitution to be adopted by the Community Council determines otherwise, be entitled to vote only for candidates standing for seats within the sub-division in which the eligible elector resides, the number of votes available to each eligible elector in that event being equal to the number of seats being contested within that sub-division; and no elector shall cast more than one vote for any one candidate.
- 10.5 The hours of polling for ballot elections shall be determined for each Community Council area by the Returning Officer, taking account of local circumstances for the first election to a Community Council and during such period or periods between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. as the Community Council may determine thereafter unless where voting is by post, in which case the period shall be determined by the Returning Officer. The number of vacant seats available shall be filled by the corresponding number of candidates receiving the highest number of votes. In the event of more than one candidate receiving the same number of votes for the last available seat or seats on the Community Council, the successful candidate(s) will be decided by lot.
- 10.6 A returned ballot paper shall contain only such information as is requested to identify the candidates chosen by the elector. Any ballot paper which at the counting of the votes is found to:-
- (a) contain any mark or other writing implying that the number of votes being cast is more than the designated number available to the elector; or
 - (b) contain any mark or other writing implying that more than one vote for any one candidate is being cast; or
 - (c) identify the elector,
- shall be deemed to be a spoilt paper, and shall be disregarded in the count.
- 10.7 The Returning Officer shall appoint and instruct persons to supervise the ballot or open the postal votes as appropriate and to conduct the count.
- 10.8 The Returning Officer, immediately after the counting of votes, shall complete a return to the Scottish Borders Council and to the Community Council concerned, containing the names and addresses of members elected, details of the number of votes cast for each candidate, the number of ballot papers issued and returned, the number of spoilt ballot papers and any other information as to the conduct of the election which may be required by Scottish Borders Council.
- 10.9 The Returning Officer shall, as soon as possible after the election, give public notice of the names and addresses of members elected.

11.0 General Provisions

- 11.1 Within twenty-one days of the election of a Community Council where possible, the Returning Officer shall convene the first public meeting of the Community Council. At this meeting, which shall be chaired, until a Chairperson has been elected, by the Returning Officer or his nominee (who shall normally be an ex officio member, if available) the Community Council shall elect from its eligible members a Chairperson, to be known by such title as the Community Council decide, subject to approval of that title by the Scottish Borders Council, and such other office-bearers as the Community Council shall deem necessary. Thereafter such office-bearers, who shall be eligible for re-election, shall be elected or re-elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Community Council, or otherwise in accordance with the Constitution to be prepared as aftermentioned.

- 11.2 Every Community Council may appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer (which offices may be combined) who shall hold office and may be eligible for re-appointment in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution to be prepared as aftermentioned. The Secretary and Treasurer (but no other office-bearers) may be appointed from outwith the membership of the Community Council and may receive such remuneration as the Community Council may determine from the resources available to them, there being no extra funding available from the Scottish Borders Council for this purpose. Such appointees from outwith the membership shall be entitled to speak only on matters relating to their function as office-bearers and shall have no voting rights.
- 11.3 Following the first meeting after every election, each Community Council will lodge with the Director of Central Services of the Scottish Borders Council a return specifying the full names, designations and addresses of the Community Council's office-bearers and Examiner(s) of their Accounts and subsequently advise him, in writing, of all changes thereof.
- 11.4 Meetings of each Community Council shall be convened at intervals of not more than six months and at least three meetings shall be held annually, one of which shall be the Annual General Meeting. All meetings of the Community Council, shall be open to members of the public. Community Councils shall comply with the principles of the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985 and any amending legislation, particularly in regard to the conduct of business in public unless permitted to be taken in private in terms of the Act, and also in regard to allowing sight of agenda papers and Minutes. A summary of its main provisions shall be provided to each Community Council.
- 11.5 Community Council members shall comply with the National Code of Conduct for Local Authority Members, a copy of which shall be issued to each Community Council. Members shall be required, in advance, to declare pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests relating to matters which might be under discussion and after doing so shall take no part in their consideration. Failure to observe this may lead to suspension and repeated failure to observe may lead to expulsion.
- 11.6 Only Community Council Members with full voting rights may vote at Community Council Meetings, including Annual General Meetings, the only exception being votes on the proposed contents of the Constitution and proposed amendments thereto, in which case all persons eligible to vote in local government elections and on the Electoral Roll for the Community Council area and in attendance at the meeting are entitled to vote.
- 11.7 The quorum for each Community Council shall be one-third of the Community Council Membership eligible to vote, subject to a minimum of three.
- 11.8 Every Community Council shall be empowered to convene special meetings as aftermentioned within the defined area of the particular Community Council for the purpose of considering matters of interest and importance, and for the purpose of agreeing or amending their Constitution.
- 11.9 Every Community Council shall, upon receipt of a requisition signed by twenty electors, convene a special meeting, to be held within twenty-one days of receipt of that requisition, or such shorter period as may be specified in the Community Council Constitution, to consider the business which must be specified in the requisition and in the notice calling the meeting.

Public notice shall be given by a copy of the agenda being affixed in a prominent and clearly visible position at the normal place where meetings of that Council are held and/or in such other manner or locations as may be prescribed in the Constitution;

- 13.3 In the event of any Community Council not being established, being in abeyance or becoming disestablished or dissolved, its share of any grant shall be retained by the Scottish Borders Council until such time as the Community Council is formed or re-formed, when a proportion of the grant appropriate to the portion of the Scottish Borders Council's financial year remaining shall be awarded.
